

THE CHARITY CONCERT.

"When can their glory fade?
O, the wild charge they made!
All the world wondered.
Honor to the charge they made:
Noble six hundred."

On the 25th of last June, on the eve almost of the day that our Country would celebrate her One-Hundredth natal day, General Custer and his brave gave their lives in perpetuation of her honor. Surrounded by overwhelming odds, they met death with a gallant despair and bought for themselves with price of heroic breath a grave amidst the Eternal.

No monument need they as a memorial of their valorous deed. Gray beards will on their story to eager listeners for years to come. Soldiers, as they fight their battles o'er, will touch the cap in reverential memory as they speak of the gallant Seventh. Young men and boys will wonder over that bead roll of honor whose every name is that of a hero. And women, ever gentle and sorrowing in their recollections, will drop tears of pity as they recall the desolate and widowed wives who gave their loved ones at the call of Country. And need they emblazoned page of history to record their fame? In the great heart of the Nation it rests. What grander cenotaph need ever so Spartan a band! The Argive, dying on foreign field of battle, remembered sweet Argos, committing to his native land the beloved ones at home. The gallant soldiery who went down in the Valley of the Yellowstone, doubtless, with parting breath invoked their native land in behalf of the beloved whom they would never see more.

And, men of Prescott, shall we be deaf to such an appeal? Charity—ever kind, and gratitude, are calling to every one of us to aid and succor the widow and fatherless of those who died to protect our Western frontier. And we feel, as we write, that the frontiersmen, who themselves have so often run the gauntlet of death at the hands of the red devils, will not be heedless of so praiseworthy and estimable a design as the Concert that is to be given next Tuesday evening in aid of the widows and orphans of the officers and men who fell with Custer.

Actuated by purest charity, Mrs. A. V. Kautz, and these ladies of Prescott, Mrs. N. B. Bowers, Mrs. R. H. Burnister, Miss Lizzie Bashford and others, aided by the Eighth Infantry Band, conducted by Prof. Abbiati, together with Mr. Wieneawski, will try in the above manner to add something to the general Contribution Fund now in the hands of General Schofield and the Editors of The Army and Navy Journal. The Concert will be at Luke's Hall, the proprietor having kindly loaned the same.

To aid in such a noble work is the duty of all lovers of heroic deeds and unflinching courage. Is there a man in Prescott who does not feel the heart elate when he recalls how supremely brave must have been each of that band, dying as they did, so grandly, so manfully and so fearlessly.

"Their's not to make reply,
Their's not to reason why,
Their's but to do and die."

We sincerely trust that the good people of Prescott will not be behind in such a gracious and worthy charity, but that all will lend their aid in behalf of the poor stricken widows who are wived now by memory and association and gratitude to all who have kind and noble hearts.

We have been asked whether one who is of foreign birth but who has declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States can register and vote in the ensuing election. The question is an important one to the whole Territory, and we have taken legal advice on the matter. Up to the 1st day of December, 1873, the suffrage of this Territory was regulated by the Organic Act of New Mexico, by the provisions of which it was enacted that none but citizens of the United States could vote in an election. This provision was repealed by Section 5, 596 of the Revised Statutes, of the United States, and in lieu of the qualifications of voters as prescribed by the Organic Act the matter is now regulated by the general provision, Section 1860, revised Statutes relating to the suffrage in the Territories, which confers upon the Legislative Assembly the right to prescribe the qualifications of electors, subject to certain restrictions on the power of the Legislative Assembly, among which are the following:

First.—The right of suffrage and of holding office shall be exercised only by citizens of the United States above the age of 21 years and by those above that age who have declared on oath before a competent court of record, their intention to become such, and have taken an oath to support the constitution and Government of the United States.

The Legislature of the Territory have omitted in their definition of the qualifications of electors in the Registry Act any mention of aliens who have declared their intention to become citizens of the United States; but as Congress has placed it out of their power to disfranchise such an alien he is entitled to register by complying with subdivision 6 of Section 5 of the Registry law and making affidavit to the effect that he is an elector of the county.

FINE WORK ON FINE JEWELRY.—Morgan & Dougherty have shown us some exquisitely wrought diamond ear-rings, made to order in their establishment. Also a beautiful symbolic charm, for P. Kearney, Esq. The design represents a quarter of the World on which stand several telegraph poles strung with wires, and a hand reaching from the Earth and grasping a bundle of lively looking thunder-bolts.

BY TELEGRAPH.

(Special to the Miner by U. S. Military and W. U. Lines)

New York, Sept. 18.—The volume of trade for the past month is largely in excess of the same time last year.

Fort Laramie, Sept. 17.—The following dispatch is just received from the Department of Dakota. Col. Carter reports that Kill Eagle and Little Wound with 140 of their people all their arms and ammunition and about 100 ponies surrendered at Standing Rock on the 15th. 29 warriors who were in the fight on the Little Horn surrendered.

Chicago, Sept. 19.—Col. Buell, commanding at the Cheyenne Agency says: "I have had messengers direct from the hostile camp near Six Buttes. They report General Terry's column moving towards the Missouri River. The Indians are desirous of surrendering. I have stated to the messengers as an ultimatum that they must surrender their arms and remain prisoners and submit to the decision of the authorities as to what shall be done with them in future."

San Diego, Sept. 19.—The pawn shops in New York refuse to loan more than $25 on any one article. The poor are parting with everything they have. Merchants are pawning their jewelry, family bibles and mechanical tools are also being pawned for bread.

A Paris dispatch says: "The proposed elevation, at the Pope's request, of Father Beckx, General of the Jesuits, to be Cardinal, is the great event in the Catholic world. Father Beckx is the candidate of the Ultramontane party for the Papacy. His election would accelerate the Old Catholic movement in Central Europe, and serve Church and State in France."

Chicago, Sept. 17.—Trouble is anticipated on Tuesday when the general disarming of Indians begins at the agencies along the Missouri River.

New York, Sept. 18.—The Herald's special says Sitting Bull with his followers has crossed the Missouri River 30 miles from First Peak. The troops are in pursuit.

Philadelphia, Sept. 17.—Considerable damage was done to-day by a storm, which blew a portion of the roof from the Main Exhibition building and great injury was done to many others throughout the City.

Elko, Sept. 18.—General Sherman and Secretary Cameron passed to-day for California.

San Francisco, Sept. 19.—The free employment Bureau is overrun with applicants of American birth, who are willing to work for board and lodging. Hundreds of strong, active, honest men are willing and eager to obtain work anywhere in the State at 50 cents a day. The country is full of suffering, caused by under paid labor.

San Diego, Sept. 20.—To-morrow is the day on which the Gates of Hell will be blown to pieces by the New Yorkers.

Chicago, Sept. 19.—About ten days ago, General Crook surprised a camp of between two and three hundred Indians north of Harney's Peak and killed every one of them. Recent advantages have put the troops in much better spirits.

Portsmouth, N. H., Sept. 20.—Rear Admiral Pennack died suddenly to-day of apoplexy.

Philadelphia, Sept. 20.—Attendance at the Centennial is daily increasing. There were 15,000 men in line at the Odd Fellows parade to-day.

San Diego, Sept. 21.—Bishop Jones of the M. E. Church is believed to be on his death bed. [Has since died.—Ed.]

San Francisco, Sept. 19.—Arrangements are made to give General Sherman a Military reception this evening, but it is understood he declines the honor. He will be serenaded at the Palace Hotel this evening and during his stay go around the bay on the steamer Donatelo, and visit Belmont as the guest of Senator Sharon, etc., etc.

San Francisco, Sept. 21.—Belcher, 21½; Cal., 62½; Ophir, 60. There is no life to the market.

Gold in New York, 110. Greenbacks in San Francisco, 90½ @ 91½.

Exclusively to the Miner.

San Francisco, Sept. 20.—The Colorado Steam Navigation Company's Steamer Newbern, will sail for the mouth of the Colorado River on Saturday, September 30th.

ANOTHER PRECINCT HEARD FROM.

CAMP APACHE, A. T., September 4, 1876.

EDITOR MINER:—In looking over the late files of the Tucson Citizen we find in the list of the inhabitants of Camp Apache, (outside of the Military and Indians), the number given as 50, which is a lie, for we can and will poll a vote here of over 100 and have a total population here of over 210; the Census Marshal has it we believe 208 which we think below the mark. Please give this notice in your paper in the cause of truth and justice, and for the benefit of those Honorable Gentlemen of Tucson, who are so well posted in our affairs and who have petitioned Judge French to interfere with the duties of the Territorial Secretary. Signed by the following citizens of this place:

L. B. St. James; R. J. Bailey; John Brosee; Charles Kinnear; Madeline Calderon; Eli Stanley; A. Rush Bower; Mose Buckley; Thomas Estal; James Cook; A. Sawyer; Anthony Long; Charles Allen and many others.

We find from reading the shipping receipt given by the steamship company that our new press is on its way to Ehrenberg to which point the company has undertaken to and will deliver it unless some danger of the sea; restraint of government, act of God, or of enemies, pirates, robbers or thieves, collisions, fires, accidents, dangers of the river, seizure by privateers or letters of marque, rising of passengers, effect of climate or decay, loss or damage from any cause whatsoever, breakage, leakage or rust, shall happen it, in which case the company, according to the wording of the receipt, will probably keep it or throw it overboard, and we shall have to order another by ox team across the plains. If none of these things have happened it we shall expect to hear of its arrival at Ehrenberg next week.

REGISTRY AGENTS.—Sheriff Bowers furnishes us the following list of Deputy Registry Agents, which we publish for the information of those who are not registered and cannot conveniently come to the County Seat: Chas. Cushman, Verde; J. W. Swilling, Black Canyon; Frank Kirkland, Wickensburg; John Ellis, Peck and Bradshaw; Chas. Pine, Walnut Grove; James Madden, Williamson Valley; P. C. Wilder, Mount Hope; P. W. Smith, Smith's Mill; Jas. Stinson, Little Colorado; Daniel Davis, Sunset Crossing, Little Colorado; J. L. Wilson, Obed, 25 miles above Sunset Crossing.

Murat Masterson, Esq., left for Tucson, on Tuesday's stage, perhaps to see if it is really true that J. W. Leonard's name is on the Census roll of Pima County as he knows Leonard has not been in Pima County since the law permitted them to take names. Permit us to suggest, while you are looking for Leonard's name, that you cast your eye over the list and see if the names of E. J. Beardsley and C. W. Gearhart appear there. These gentlemen left the Territory early last spring but it would be a comfort to their friends to know that they were not neglected by the Pima Census taker. Then, there is our old friend Judge E. F. Dunne, see if they have slighted him and his wife and baby. They were glad to have him go, but surely they have not held malice against him to such an unreasonable degree as to leave his name out of the census roll. Having passed through Tucson yourself since the adjournment of the Legislature, it might be well enough to look a little out for your own name on the roll.

To-day's dispatches, dated yesterday, confirm the killing of between 200 and 300 Indians by General Crook's command. Also the refusal of Indians to accept terms of surrender.

The jury in John D. Lee's case have found him guilty of murder in the first degree for the massacre at Mountain Meadows.

PYROMORPHITE.—Pyromorphite, or phosphate of lead, has been discovered recently by Mr. Fred Henry, in the vicinity of Walnut Grove. Some beautiful crystals of an orange yellow color were brought to town day-before yesterday. It is a rare mineral, and, it is said, has not before been found on this coast. Its composition is as follows: phosphate of lead, 90.00; chloride of lead, 9.91.

A review of the Citizen's position with regard to the authority of the Legislature to delegate power to the Territorial Secretary unavoidably crowded out of this issue.

A CARD.

MINERAL PARK, September 15th, 1876.

EDITOR MINER:—I must say I was surprised when I read the following notice in your paper:

"NOTICE.—All persons are hereby notified not to trust my wife, Matilda S. Riggs, on my account, as she has left my bed and board without just cause or provocation; therefore I will not be responsible for any bills that may be run or contracted by the said Matilda S. Riggs. W. L. Riggs."

I have worked and taken care of my children, after being left alone, by him who was pledged to protect me, without a cent for over a year at a time, and was working and taking care of his children, and because I would not put up with his abuse any longer he tore my children from me and left me, as he supposed, destitute.

But thank providence I met kind friends, my health is good and I am willing to work and can make my living. I don't wish for any of his credit and as for his bed he never owned one. Surely he never bought one for me. He is now reaping the benefit of my hard work and good care.
